DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figures 1-8 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Priority

2. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on a PCT application filed September 13, 2002, and a Japanese application filed on September 21, 2001. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the foreign applications as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Claim Objections

3. Claims 1-2 are objected to because of the following informalities: the transition phrase --the method comprising the steps of: -- should be between the preamble and the actual method steps. This being before "installing" thirteen lines from the bottom of claim 1 and similarly twelve lines for the bottom of claim 2.

Art Unit: 3726

4. Also the outline letters (a-k of claim 1 and a-j of claim 2) do not seem to make the claim read well, since some are drawn to structural limitations while others are drawn to method steps. There should be consistency with their use.
5. Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 1-2 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1 and 3 of U. S. Patent No. 6,880,689 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming essentially the same common subject matter. The patent claims the exact same apparatus structure and assembles the bearing by simultaneously compressing the strings (using a jig). All steps therefore are inherent. Where the claimed and prior art products are identical or substantially identical in structure or composition, or are produced by identical or substantially identical processes, a prima facie case of either anticipation or obviousness has been established. In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1255, 195 USPQ 430, 433 (CCPA 1977).

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

8. Claims 1-2 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1 and 3 of copending Application No. 10/804,831 (Notice of Allowance dated April 27, 2005). This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming essentially the same common subject matter. Where the claimed and prior art products are identical or substantially identical in structure or composition, or are produced by identical or substantially identical processes, a prima facie case of either anticipation or obviousness has been established. In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1255, 195 USPQ 430, 433 (CCPA 1977).

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 1-2 would be allowable, if Applicant overcomes the double patenting rejections above.

10. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art of record fails to show or render obvious a method of assembling a pulley apparatus as defined in claim 1, including the steps of holding the rollers with the springs engaged in the pockets in the retainer and pressing the rollers, simultaneously compressing the springs using a jig, displacing the retainer, and then installing the second balls between the inner peripheral surface of the pulley and the outer peripheral surface of the shaft, in combination with the other claimed subject matter.

The art of record also fails to show or teach the method of assembling a pulley apparatus as defined in claim 2, including the steps of holding the rollers with the springs engaged in the pockets in the retainer and pressing the rollers, utilizing the beveled section to simultaneously compress the spring, and then installing the second ball bearing between the inner peripheral surface of the pulley and the outer peripheral surface of the shaft, in combination with the other claimed subject matter.
